UBTP & BITS Breakfast

The University of Ballarat Technology Park (UBTP) and Ballarat IT Specialist (BITS) Breakfast brings together ICT professionals and other stakeholders from Ballarat and the broader region.

Guest Speaker: Ian Powell, Manager-Planning and Strategy, Technology Services, Country Fire Authority

We are all aware of the immense challenges that the Country Fire Authority faced this summer. Obviously communications technology is an important dimension of the operational capacity of the Authority. Ian will speak on:

- The existing radio communications network within the CFA
- Inter-agency operability for major incidents
- Future directions of communications technology within the CFA

Guest speaker biography

Ian is a long serving senior manager of the Country Fire Authority. Some of areas of responsibility held include:

- Project Manger for CFA communications moving to the original Intergraph dispatch facility Tally Ho
- Project Manager for CFA communications in relation to Country Call-Taking at the IBM building Mt Helen
- Provided professional development for CFA staff with the introduction for EAS paging
- Has led Communications Planning (in conjunction with DSE) at major incidents
- Currently managing the installation of a Radio over IP (RoIP) network to connect radio sites to Mt Helen
- Working to provide a contract for new radio terminals for CFA network
